

CONTENTS

Foreword	ix
Preface	xi
Introduction	1
CHAPTER 1 Have an Engaging Mind-set	11
It's About Them, Not About You • Be Passionate • Be Yourself • Have a Conversation • Collaborate with Them • Prepare for Inevitable Resistance
CHAPTER 2 Set an Interactive Tone	23
Reach Out and Connect with Your Audience • Grab 'Em with a Lively Title • Build on the Meeting Theme • Make the Room More Engaging • Prepare Your Handouts, Workbooks, or Takeaways • Pack Everything You Need • Observe and Mingle • Engage as They Enter • Start Smartly
CHAPTER 3 You Are the Number One Visual	43
Connect with Your Eyes • Smiles and other Facial Expressions • Spice it Up with Vocal Variety • Use Inviting Gestures • Move with a Purpose • Dress the Part
CHAPTER 4 Engage with Enhancing Visuals	57
Some General Principles • Use Props • Reward Your Audience • Be Spontaneous with an Easel Chart
CHAPTER 5 Use PowerPoint with Purpose	65
Use a Splash Page, Icons, and Hyperlinks • Insert Digital Pictures • Insert Cartoons, Symbols, and Drawings • Use Display Charts • Insert Video Snippets • Use Color Appropriately • Countdown Timers • Make Sure Your Slides Are Easy on the Eyes

CHAPTER 6	Ask Engaging Questions	81
	Ask an Open-Ended Question • Ask a Situational Question • Ask a Provocative Question • Ask a Rhetorical Question • Take a Poll • Using Technology • Ask a Series of “Enrolling” Questions • Encourage Answers from the Audience • Interview a Participant • Wrong Answers and Other Maladies
CHAPTER 7	Q&A	99
	Take Questions as You Go • Stop Periodically • Create Small Groups • Starting Your Q&A Session • Collect Questions • Respond to a Question • Answer the Question • Finish with a Strong Closing
CHAPTER 8	Let Your Natural Humor Shine Through	111
	A Word About Finding Your Humor Comfort Zone • Making Humor Work for You • Finding the Common Ground • Keep Your Humor Eyes Open • Other Sources of Humor • The Pure Humor of Spontaneous Interaction • What About Jokes? •
CHAPTER 9	Choose Descriptive Words	125
	Anchor Your Main Idea • Repetition, Restatement, and the Rule of Three • Use Strong Words • Choose Vivid Words • Arrange Words Rhythmically to Resonate with Your Audience • The Power of the Pause • Lists, Headlines, and Highlights • Use Words that Sell • Keep it Simple
CHAPTER 10	Tell Interesting Stories	139
	Definitions, Quotations, and Testimonials • Examples, Illustrations, and Case Studies • Comparisons, Analogies, and Allusions • Facts and Statistics • Personal and Signature Stories • Borrowed Stories • Invite Them into Your Story • Autoresponders
CHAPTER 11	Involve the Audience	157
	Task Individuals • Write it Down • Games, Puzzles, and Competitions • Demonstrations • Skits and Role-Plays
CHAPTER 12	Dyads, Triads, Quads, and More	171
	Step 1. Set up the Activity • Step 2. Reflect • Step 3. Separate into Smaller Groups • Step 4. Give Instructions • Step 5. Engage • Step 6. Debrief • Adapting to Large Audiences

CHAPTER 13	When Presenting Becomes Facilitating	185
	The Facilitator • Develop a Process Agenda • GODA Process Flow
CHAPTER 14	Make Your Message Stick	203
	Review and Revisit • Create a Strong, Compelling Call to Action • Create Accountability • End with the Audience in Mind • Extend the Conversation
CHAPTER 15	Infuse Your Presentation	213
	How to Infuse Your Presentations • Step 1. Do your Homework About the Audience • Step 2. Lay Out Your Presentation in Bits • Step 3. Identify Your Objective(s) for Each Bit • Step 4. Note the Current Techniques • Step 5. Lay Out the Energy Curves • Step 6. Brainstorm Different Techniques • Step 7. Select the Most Appropriate Technique • Step 8. Do a Dry Run
CHAPTER 16	Improve Your Presentation Skills	227
	Critique Yourself • Self-Assesment Form • Collect Audience Feedback • Audio/Video Critique • Keep Learning
	Conclusion	239
	Glossary and Index of Terms	241
	Recommended Resources	253
	Acknowledgments	257
	About the Author	259